IN THE HOUSE.

Senator Morgan Makes a Long Speech On the Behring Sea Question—Changes Made in Senate Committee—Peckham's Nomination Confirmed—Gossip of the Capital.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The first business proposition brought forward in the house yesterday was a bill by Mr. Hopkins, republican, of Illinois, to amend the statute fixing the customs district of Chicago so that the district would embrace all of the states of Illinois and Indiana. Mr. Hopkins explained that the bill was in the interest of the smelters of Aurora, who desired to be able to pay the duties on Canadian ores at the port of Chicago. At present, he said, Aurora was not in the district. The bill was passed by unanimous consent.

The oath of office was administered to Mr. Price, democrat, of Louisiana, who had not been present at the previous meetings of the house.

A resolution was passed for the appointment of three new assistants to the superintendent of the document room, as was a resolution for the appointment of Isaac Hill, of Ohio, as a deputy sergeant-at-arms and the three other employees agreed upon by the democratic caucus.

SENATOR MORGAN IS ANGRY.

Denies America's Liability for the Behring Sea Seizures.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The feature of the senate yesterday was a speech by Senator Morgan of Alabama, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, a member of the Paris Behring Sea tribunal, upon a resolution offered by him last week instructing the foreign relations committee to investigate the question of the liability of the United States for the seizure of British ships in Behring Sea in 1890. Mr. Morgan took the position in the last congress that the payment of a lump sum of $425,000, as recommended by the president, was neither wise nor proper. His remarks on that occasion were the subject of some sarcastic comment from the British ambassador here in the latter's official correspondence with Lord Kimberley. That correspondence was printed recently from the British Blue Book, and most of Mr. Morgan's speech yesterday was devoted to paying his respects to Sir Julian Pauncefote, whom he severely criticised. He declared that the Paris tribunal did not attempt to determine the question of the liability of the United States for seizures or the amount of such liability. Great Britain contended, however, that the liability was decided as a necessary inference and President Cleveland, proceeding on that assumption, had, through the state department, agreed to pay $425,000 in discharge of this alleged liability of the United States, but that agreement could not be carried out without the ratification of congress. The findings of the tribunal rested entirely upon the treaty-making power of the two governments and the United States and Great Britain were bound to carry out the regulations decided on for the protection of seals, as much as if those regulations had been incorporated in a treaty. But neither government was bound further. At most, the award of the arbitrators would only turn a remote argument for the claim of Great Britain to damages for seizures.

Mr. Morgan went at considerable length into what he termed the "infamous conspiracy" which proceeded under the protection of the British flag for the violation of the laws of the United States, and claimed that a thorough investigation and adjudication of the claims would result in large allowances of damages to the lessees of the seal islands and consequently an increased revenue to the United States. In concluding Mr. Morgan again returned to his assault on the British ambassador for his rough criticism of himself, of which he said he was perhaps "unbecomingly careless."

At the conclusion of his speech, which occupied two hours, Mr. Morgan asked a vote on the adoption of his resolution instructing the foreign affairs committee to examine into the report upon the liability of the United States to Great Britain for the seizures. The resolution was then read and adopted without a dissenting voice.

Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Voorhees (Dem., Ind.) granting a pension of $200 per month to the widow of the late Secretary of State General Gresham.

Mr. Baker (Rep., Kan.) offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling upon the president, if not incompatible with the public interests, to submit to the senate all documents and correspondence at the state department relating to the case of ex-consul John L. Waller, now under arrest in France. The senate adjourned at 4 p. m.

CHANGES IN COMMITTEES.

Membership of Finance Is Seven to Five in Favor of Silver.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The republican caucus committee of the senate was in session for three hours yesterday, but adjourned until to-day without completing its assignment of committee memberships. Senator Teller will become chairman of the committee on claims, Senator Hansbrough on library, Senator Galinger on pensions, and Senator Shoup on patents. There has been an exchange of places by which Senator Cameron takes a membership place on foreign relations and Senator Wolcott the place on finance which was conceded to Mr. Cameron before he announced his intentions not to stand for re-election to the senate. There is a probability that this committee will be increased by the addition of only one member. This increase is to be made to give the republicans an opportunity to put a silver man and an anti-silver man on the committee. Senator Jones of Nevada is to be allowed to retain his place, but as a populist and not as a republican as heretofore. This arrangement will give the republicans six members, the democrats five, and the populists one. On financial questions the committee will stand seven to five in favor of silver.

Report on Soldiers' Homes.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The speaker yesterday laid before the house the annual report of W. B. Franklin, president of the board of managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1895. The board, the report says, has inspected the branches of the home and also the twenty-four state homes. They have been found in good condition. The speaker also laid before the house a letter from the acting secretary of the treasury, requesting an appropriation of $10,000 for the United States share of the expenses and salaries during the fiscal year 1897 on the international boundary commission between the United States and Mexico, under the convention of March 1, 1889.

Owe Cherokees a Million.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Attorney General Harmon yesterday sent to congress a report upon the law features of the settlement with the Cherokee Indians. The secretary of the interior has decided that the United States is indebted to these Indians in the sum of $1,111,284, paid for their removal to Indian Territory and improperly charged to the treaty fund. The attorney general takes the position that the expense incurred in the removal prior to 1838 was properly chargeable to this fund.

Republicans Will Organize the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The populist senators have changed their former decision concerning the organization of the senate, and have now agreed to interpose no objection to the republicans taking control. They will act together, but will withdraw as a body and allow the republicans to elect their candidates for the senate offices. They may possibly nominate a candidate for president pro tem, but they will not press his claims nor continue his candidacy so as to delay organization.

Senate Confirms Nominations.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The senate in executive session yesterday confirmed the following nominations: Rufus H. Peckham of New York to be associate justice of the United States Supreme court. Elmer B. Adams of Missouri to be district judge for the western district of Missouri.

SEVEN MEN DROWNED.

The Tug Pearl B. Campbell Founders in Lake Superior.

L'Anse, Mich., Dec. 10.—The tug Pearl B. Campbell, while going from Marquette to Duluth, foundered in Lake Superior off Huron Island, and all on board, numbering seven men, were lost. They were:

CAPTAIN M'GILVIRAY, master of the Campbell, Duluth.

JOHN L. LLOYD, mate, Duluth.

GEORGE M'COY, first engineer, Cheboygan, Mich.

FRED ENGLAND, second engineer, Duluth.

TWO FIREMEN, names unknown.

COOK, name unknown.

The Campbell was in company with the tugs Corona and Castle, and the three had formed a wrecking expedition to release the schooners Moonlight and H. A. Kent, ashore on Chocomaug Beach, at Marquette. All three boats belonged to the Inman tug line of Duluth. The attempt to release the schooners was given up on Friday night and the tugs started for their home port, Duluth. They made good progress during the night, and on Saturday morning were in the vicinity of Huron Island, on the course to round Keweenaw Point, where they were struck by a furious northeast storm, accompanied by blinding snow.

Canadian Knights of Labor.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 10.—Steps are being taken in this and other cities in Canada for the organization of a Canadian national labor union on lines in some respects very similar to the Knights of Labor. When the union has been properly organized the intention is to supplant the Knights of Labor in Canada. While the Canadian divisions have right along been contributing their dues to the American society they have been simply isolated and the fact of membership has resulted in no practical benefits to the workmen of this country in their concerted effort to secure desired legislation on any matters under their existing obligations to the Knights of Labor.

CHILTON IS SWIFT
BY A BIG BLAZEWISCONSIN CITY LOSES VERY HEAVILY BY FIRE.

The Total Destruction of the Little City Was Threatened For a Time and Many Buildings Were Swept Away—Help Was Sent From Green Bay.

Milwaukee, Dec. 10.—Chilton, the county seat of Calumet county, situated about ninety miles north of here on the St. Paul road, was threatened with total destruction by fire early this morning. Assistance was asked from Green Bay and locomotives were sent from here and Hilbert Junction to move a large number of freight cars from danger. A grain elevator, a hotel and several other buildings were burned. Since the departure from Green Bay shortly after 1 o'clock of an engine and hose cart, with their crews, nothing definite has been heard, communication being cut off.

Green Bay, Wis., Dec. 10.—An engine, hose cart and ten firemen left here at 1:10 a. m. for Chilton in response to a telegram from Mayor Remmon to Mayor Elmore, saying that a hotel, an elevator and a number of other buildings had burned and that the blaze was sweeping over the business part of the town on the west side of the Manitowish river. It is reported that two fires are burning. Chilton has about 2,500 population, two flouring mills, a planing mill, a chair factory, two machine shops, two grain elevators, a brewery, malthouse, public library, etc.

WILL BE SETTLED TODAY

Chicago Confident of Securing the Republican Convention.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The Chicago people here are confident that they are going to get the republican convention. They are not offering a bid, and do not expect a large vote on the first ballot, but believe that the national committee understands the advantages of Chicago as a convention city, and after those members who are pledged to other places have fulfilled their promises they will settle upon Chicago as a second choice. The San Francisco people are doing the most talking and making the highest bids. But the strongest argument against San Francisco is that delegates will be taken away from their business for at least four weeks of the busiest season of the year to attend the convention.

The New York delegation does not seem to be very much in earnest, and Mr. Platt, their member of the committee, has already expressed himself in favor of Chicago as the better place. St. Louis is making an earnest fight and has a good many friends, and the Pittsburgh delegation is giving unreasonable assurances.

The Chicago delegation will not make any detailed proposition. They will simply offer to do anything that the national committee requires in case that city is selected and leave the matter there. They will settle the debts of the committee, which amount to $54,000; they will pay all the expenses of the convention and the hotel bills of the members of the national committee if that is demanded, but will volunteer nothing.

There is a rumor afloat that a majority of the national committee have decided to require a guaranty of $100,000 for convention expenses, and that no city will be seriously considered that cannot show that amount. In this connection it was whispered in the corners of the hotel that St. Louis is the only city that can guarantee that amount, although the Chicago delegation contend that they will have as much money as the committee may require.

NO COMPROMISE.

Premier Greenaway's Statement as to the Manitoba School Question.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 10.—Speculation has been free lately regarding the probable action of the Manitoba government in respect to the Federal order in council, inviting Premier Greenaway and his colleagues to remove the alleged grievances of the Roman Catholic minority in this province in relation to education. This order in council was received last July, and until this moment no answer has been given and the ministers have maintained a profound silence. This had given rise to rumors that a compromise was contemplated. But Premier Greenaway has made a statement which will give a different turn to affairs. This is the first official statement made by any member of the government since the last session of the legislature. The premier said: "The government has had under consideration the whole subject at various times since the receipt of the order in council of the Dominion government of July 3 last, with the result that it has become clear to us that no concession by the legislature will be regarded as a solution of the difficulty or as removing the alleged grievances, unless such concession admits the principle of and re-establishes state-aided separate schools. The movers of re-establishment of separate schools by the government will make no compromise."

GUILT BEFORE DEATH.

Committed Suicide Before His Case of Attempted Blackmail Came to Trial—Admission Implicated His Wife Minister Had Been Charged With Being Attentive to Her.

Appleton, Dec. 10.—[Special].—Herman Paetzold, who was charged, with his wife, with sending anonymous letters to members of Zion church congregation, died this morning from the effects of morphine. He is believed to have taken it with suicidal intent. Before dying Paetzold confessed that it was a blackmail scheme and implicated his wife. The pastor of the church had been charged with paying attention to Mrs. Paetzold.

CAMERON WILL RETIRE.

Pennsylvania's Junior Senator Not a Candidate for Re-election.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Senator Don Cameron has announced formally that he will not be a candidate under any circumstances for re-election. The announcement was made in a letter to Samuel J. McCarrell of Pittsburgh, which the senator gave to the public yesterday.

SENATOR DON CAMERON.

Missouri Defaulter Run Down.

Delaware, Ohio, Dec. 10.—William Parrish, cashier of the Farmers' bank of Orrick, Mo., a leader in business, society and church circles in that town, disappeared from his home July last and was arrested at Delaware yesterday, charged with embezzlement. He will be taken to Missouri for trial. At the time of his disappearance friends professed to believe that he had been murdered. An examination of the affairs of the bank resulted in finding a shortage of several thousand dollars in Parrish's accounts. Most of the money had been secured by means of forged notes turned into the assets of the bank. The bank is now in the hands of receivers.

Pneumatic Guns Are a Success.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 10.—The three days' test of the pneumatic guns erected at the Presidio reservation were concluded yesterday. The board of military examiners expressed their satisfaction with the test, which exceeded the requirements in every respect. The three-inch pneumatic guns were tested for capacity, rapidity and distance. Four rounds of shells, each containing 100 pounds of dynamite, were thrown 5,000 yards, and five rounds of projectiles, each weighing 1,140 pounds, were loaded and fired in eight minutes and twenty-three seconds.

Says Russians Were the Instigators.

Shanghai, Dec. 10.—News has been received here which confirms the report that the Russians were the instigators of the conspiracy of Li Hau Shin against the King of Corea. The Russians who assisted in the affair have identified some of the Americans who participated in the plot. It is alleged that the latter joined in the conspiracy owing to the revocation of the goldmine concessions granted by the queen and because their salaries as advisers were reduced.

Rain Spoils President Cleveland's Sport.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 10.—The heavy downpour of rain which set in shortly after the president and his party were settled in their blinds in Cape Batteras channel prevented them from enjoying much sport yesterday.

Railroad Workers in Convention.

Hazleton, Pa., Dec. 10.—A convention of railroad workers from all over the country is in session here. A secret meeting was held Sunday night. It is understood that a resolution was adopted which will be presented to President Wilbur of the Lehigh Valley, asking him to give the men who are still idle a fair hearing and to re-employ them. An effort was made to bring about the federation movement, but it was not successful.

President Faure's Family Scandal.

Paris, Dec. 10.—The Figaro reveals an alleged secret in President Faure's family history, which proves to have been simply that his wife's mother was abandoned by her husband two months after her marriage.

BRITAIN'S DEMAND OF VENEZUELA
Ultimatum Has Been Received at Caracas, and Its Contents Are a Secret.

London, Dec. 10.—A dispatch to the Times from Caracas, Venezuela, dated Dec. 1, says: "The British ultimatum has been delivered here, but the ministers are reticent as to its contents. There are no signs of any anti-English feeling here. The authorities assert that the revolution has been completely crushed, and that there are only a few scattered insurgents in outlying districts."

The Times also publishes a letter from Caracas, which says that the Venezuelans are themselves hopeless of preventing the judgment going against them on the question of the frontier outrage upon the British Guiana policemen, and the delay in making reparation, the correspondent adds, probably arises from the shakiness of President Crespo's authority and his fear of incurring unpopularity.

The Paris correspondent of the Times quotes an article from the Journal des Debats commenting upon the Venezuelan dispute, which says: "In spite of its immense industrial power, the United States does not possess the military and naval forces, which, after all, are at the bottom of every diplomatic discussion, which is carried farther."

The Times also publishes an editorial commenting upon the foregoing subject, which contends that the Monroe doctrine cannot be applied either to the boundary line dispute or to Great Britain's demands for reparation on account of outrages upon the officers of British Guiana. The Times adds:

"It is no more possible to submit the territory within the Schomburg line to arbitration than it would be for the United States to submit to arbitration should Spain set up a claim to a part of Florida. The remarks of the Journal des Debats are not conceived in a friendly spirit, but they have an element of truth, which sensible Americans cannot ignore. It is easy to see that if this controversy is not skillfully handled a state of things might arise among the ill-governed Central and South American republics which would involve the United States in a large expenditure for the army and navy that are now happily unnecessary."

The Chronicle remarks that it is an unusual courtesy that a copy of Lord Salisbury's dispatch to Washington has been handed to United States Ambassador Bayard.

NO WORD AT WASHINGTON.

Receipt of the British Ultimatum Not Known by the Minister.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The Venezuelan minister has received a telegram from Caracas stating that the revolution has been quelled, and that perfect peace prevails throughout the republic of Venezuela.

No word has come here touching the receipt at Caracas of the British demand for an indemnity of $50,000 on account of the arrest at Uruan by the Venezuelans of a colonial chief of police, although President Crespo is known to have returned to Caracas Nov. 23 from his vacation. It is presumed here that if this demand be made the Venezuelan government will inform the United States government of the fact, and urge that this also may be properly regarded as a matter for arbitration.

Although on its face bearing a resemblance to the Corinto incident, where the United States government admitted the right of the British government to claim an indemnity for a insult offered to a British officer, it is believed that the same doctrine cannot be applied to the Uruan case, for an admission by Venezuela that the British officer was wrongfully arrested would amount to a confession that the place of seizure, far west of the Schomburg line, was British territory, and therein lies the whole of the recent controversy between Great Britain and Venezuela, which the United States has been endeavoring to bring to a peaceful settlement by arbitration.

RETURNS TO HIS HOME.

Said Pasha Leaves His Refuge in the British Embassy.

Constantinople, Dec. 10.—Said Pasha, who has been a refugee at the British embassy, returned to his own residence last night.

It was officially announced here yesterday that no further conflicts between Mussulmans and Armenians have occurred, except in the Zeitoun district. The Vail of Sivas wires, according to the official report, that the inquiry into the disturbances at Zillah shows them to have been provoked by Armenian agitators, who had previously made arrangements to escape from the barricaded points when repulsed.

Wants Ambassador Bayard Recalled.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Representative McCall of Massachusetts will today introduce in the house a resolution calling upon the president to inform congress whether Ambassador Bayard has been rebuked by the president or state department for his two un-American speeches, recently delivered, and whether he has been or is to be recalled because of the same.

Holiday Suggestions.

This is the time of the year when everybody passes the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets without veering over to get a glimpse of C. D. Stevens' window. The windows have been filled with holiday goods in the last day or two and the effect is very fine. A toilet case there is a radical departure from the styles of a year ago and the display is much out of the ordinary. Atomizers this year are smaller and very dainty and well-finished. The designs shown at Stevens' were selected carefully before the sort-out was broken and represent the cream of the year's output. In this connection it might be suggested that perfumes will be very popular Christmas presents and that Stevens is making a specialty of all the leading dora in high grade perfumes from 25 cents up. There are fancy bottles to suit all tastes. In the way of celluloid novelties, some of the prettiest things are collar and cuff cases and photograph cases. The best thing about many of these novelties is that the prices are very small. But space forbids further enumeration of the novelties offered to prospective buyers.

Forger Lewis Safe in Mexico.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 10.—Detective Ralph Crawford returned yesterday without Forger Z. T. Lewis, whom he was pursuing. He admitted that he was after Lewis, but said that the publication of the fact destroyed his plans. Lewis is in Mexico, where it will be useless for one man to undertake to get him. Lewis is the bond forger who swindled so many bankers and others by the sale of forged municipal bonds, and fled when his methods became known. It was asserted that he had swindled the Cincinnati banks to the extent of a quarter of a million of dollars, but this finds little credence here.

Religion in Germany.

Recent statistical reports of the German Empire give the following religious data of the country: The Fatherland has 31,026,810 Protestant subjects, 17,674,921 Roman Catholics, 146,540 other Christians, 567,884 Jews, and 12,753 without any religious profession. The whole population of the Empire is 49,428,470.

the County.

How much corn will one hundred chickens eat? And will one pig eat more than that number of feathered birds?

That is one of the questions that is to be decided in an interesting law suit that is being tried by two of the Bower City's well known lawyers, Emmett D. McGowan and William Smith, at Clinton. The suit is being heard in the Grand Army hall before Justice of the Peace H.
N. Conkrite and a jury.
The case hinges on a deal whereby a farm of 160 acres of land was worked last year by the defendant, W. O.
Wright. The plaintiff, James Cole, claims damages arising out of breaches of the contract. E. McGowan appears for the defendant, while William Smith appears for the plaintiff. The trial is well attended.
Farmers for miles around have come in to see the fun and the case draws

POOR CHILDREN BROUGHT HERE

Superintendent of the State School at Spartan Janesville.

People who want children from the state institution at Spartan are quite as particular as other people, it seems,
and often times the authorities from that institution make useless trips in consequence. Mr. and Mrs. S. S.
Laudt, Mr. Laudt being the superintendent of that institution, were in the city last night. Mrs. Laudt had come to Janesville with an eleven year old girl who was to be given a home with the family of a farmer some distance from the city. When they arrived at the farmhouse, however, the family looked the girl over with a critical eye, and refused to receive her, saying that she was not old enough. They wanted a fourteen year old miss, and they wouldn't have anything else, so Mrs. Laudt and her charge had their trip for nothing.
Mr. Laudt had been in Monroe on a similar errand, and he and his wife left this noon for home.

"Some people want us to furnish them with 'hired girls,'" said Mrs.
Laudt. "That is about the way to put it when you make an unvarnished statement of the fact. We have sent ten girls into Rock county this year, and this is my fourth trip to Janesville. Most of the country people want boys as they can make themselves handy about the farm doing chores, etc. There were 300 lunatics at our institution last July, but now there are but 240. We have three agents out finding homes for the children, and they invariably find homes for them where they are well treated and are happy. Of course we get all kinds of children, but the majority of them are hard-working, conscientious, and faithful.
The state cannot afford to keep them
after they become old enough to support themselves and most of them are glad to become independent."

MAKE A LARGE LOGGING CONTRACT

Company in Which A. P. Lovejoy is Interested Make Plans.
Newspapers printed at Merrill,
Wisconsin say that a large logging contract has been taken by O'Day & Daley. "This progressive firm" the paper says, "have taken the contract to log in the Lovejoy-Anson Co's tract of land on Rice Lake, estimated at from 125 to 150 million feet of timber.
The logs will be hauled to Wausau by rail and go to the Alexander Stewart
Co. and the Mortenson & Stone Co.
A railroad twelve miles long has already been built in the timber." Hon.
A. P. Lovejoy owns an interest in this company and is the Lovejoy mentioned in the article.

Hints For Christmas Buyers

As the holidays approach, the usual question arises in the mind of the Christmas purchaser. What shall I buy this season for gifts? And the more the subject is thought of the more undecided the person becomes until a few days before the day of days arrives without the purchase of a single present. Why not save all this worry, bother and perplexity? There is a store at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, which you all know where so many pretty and useful things can be bought for very little money, that it makes it one of the most popular resorts for holiday buying. T. J. Zaigler's store is the one we speak of. What could be nicer than a cuff and collar case or a handkerchief case, or still again a handsome De Jonville puff tie put upon a pretty case, or some of the new shades of green and red four-in-hands. They have a full line of Wilson Bros. and Cutler & Crossett's holiday goods and the strongest line of 25 cent neckwear they ever handled.
Beautiful silk and satin suspenders in plain black or white and embroidered ones also. Genuine Japanese handkerchiefs from 50 cents to $1.50. An elegant line of gloves and mittens.
You can't go amiss by looking over these articles.

BIG ALTAR CROWDED WITH PENITENTS

MUCH INTEREST AROUSED BY REVIVAL SERVICES.

Rev. A. Edwin Burrows Preached to a Large Congregation and a Series of Special Meetings Lasting Through
the Week are Announced—Y. M.
C. A. Quartet Will Assist.

The revival meetings at the First
M. E. church last night was a continuation of the great Sunday meetings at which so many started the Christian life. The meeting opened at 7:15 last night by a prayer meeting for the young people led by the pastor. It was well attended.

At 7:15 Archie Crawford opened the song service. Dr. Halsey led the prayers of the people, after which Rev. Mr. Porter announced a pentecostal meeting for each afternoon at 2:30 a boys and girls' service at 4:10
and the regular evening service, after which Evangelist Burrows spoke from Jeremiah 50:xxx "The day is come, the time that I will visit thee." A few of the thoughts were: God's thought at the creation of man was that man should be both happy and useful. Many were neither because they were not now in harmony with God, or truth, virtue and righteousness.

The door of death looks black from the earthly side but from the heavenly side it looks golden. So some thought of conversion. Some feared repentance and a change of heart. Conversion looked to be dark but from the converted or christian side it looked golden—the christian loves to look back to the hour of conversion. Most earnest appeal was made to the christians to live strong christian lives, to the unfaithful professor to return to God and to the unconverted to seek salvation. To be of harmony with God, to be unconcerned means a loss of time, talents, opportunity and the soul.

After fervent prayer by several the large altar at first call of the evang-list was crowded while other seekers filled the front seats. Many testified to their new found joy and love in Christ. After the meeting was closed several remained to still seek new life.

In the audience were several from Milton Junction and Milton and on the platform were Rev. Frank Pease, Dr. Halsey and Rev. W. A. Stevens of Milton Junction. A great meeting is booked for tonight. Mr. Burrows will speak on the "Unpardonable Sin" and the Y. M. C. A. orchestra and quartette will take part.

GOOD PRICES FOR POTATOES.

Farmers Do Well Compared To Those In The West.
That the year '95 has not been an unusually prosperous one for potato raisers is known, but Rock county farmers who sighted at selling their potatoes at twenty cents a bushel, are in luck compared with their friends out west. A. S. Neilson, who was in the city yesterday from Huron, South Dakota, says that in a number of instances potatoes have been so plentiful in the Dakotas and Minne- a th t prices have been ruinous, and thousands of bushels were left in the ground rather than go to the expense of digging them.

Holiday Excursion Rates.

On December 24, 25 and 31, 1895
and January 1, 1896, the Northwestern line will sell excursion tickets at reduced rates to stations within a distance of 300 miles, good for return passage until January 2, 1896, inclusive. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

Why Not?

While you are racking your brain
to think of some gift for Christmas, decide to give a useful present. Shoes must be bought. They always can be used and why not make them gifts?
We carry the large, reliable line, you know. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

Can't Be Better For a Present.

A nice linen handkerchief is a necessity in winter and a half dozen for a Xmas present would be nice for any gentleman. We just opened the prettiest lot we ever had with and without colored border. F. H. Back.

Gloves for Street Wear 25 Cents.

Those Jersey gloves for street wear are going fast at twenty-five cents.
Don't let your hands freeze when you can prevent it so cheap. We have a double knit yarn mitten also at 25 cents. F. H. Back.

The Only Winter Shoe.

The beauty of a box calf shoe is that it looks just as well after it has been worn some time as when you first put it on. It does not lose its shape, and is absolutely water proof in the bargain. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

Don't Wait.

Our large line of initial hanker-chiefs is better to select from now than it will be later on. Why not secure the choice of the lot. Bort, Bailey & Co.

As a Present

A nice ice wool fascinator is most acceptable. We carry a large line in black and white. We also have all shades of wool fasciators at al-prices. Lowell's Annex.

Suspenders.
Men use them. They can't get along without them, that's a fact.
Why not get a pair of fancy satin ones like we carry for them. Lowell's

DOG WAITED ALL NIGHT LONG

Faithful Canine Kept Watch For His Master at a Church.

The truth of that old saying that "a dog is a man's best friend" has been shown in a great many instances, but a recent happening in Janesville demonstrated the fact in another way.
One of the members of the boy choir at Trinity church, who resides near Forest Park, has a shepherd dog. The beast followed him to church one evening last week when the boy went to choir practice. The boys, on leaving, went in a body, and the dog not seeing its master, still remained behind and stayed there throughout the night. Rev. W. H. Wotton, who resides next door, on arising the next morning, found the dog in the same place and position as when the boys left he night before.

BRINGING IN MUCH CORD WOOD

Fine Sleighing Results in An Increased Activity in That Direction.

Since the sleighing has been fairly good, an unusually large amount of cord wood has been coming into the city from all parts of the county. At one time yesterday there were eleven loads offered for sale at the corner of Milwaukee and Franklin streets.
One of the drivers, who had come all the way here from Emerald Grove explained the situation by saying that the hog cholera had bothered his neighbors during the fall and now that they had a chance to make a dollar that way they were going to do it.

REUNION OF MILTON PIONEERS

Early Days and Scenes Will be Reviewed Around the Dinner Table.

The reunion of the pioneers of the town of Milton under the auspices of DuLac Grange, No. 72, will be held in P. O. hall, Milton, Junction, Thursday, Dec. 19th, 1895. Reception and sociable at 10 a. m. Dinner will be served by the ladies of the M. E. church in Grange hall from 11:30 to 1 o'clock at 50 cents per couple. Program will commence promptly at 1:30. It is expected that many prominent old settlers from out of town who were identified with the early days of the town will be present. Noticeable are Hon. L. B. Caswell of Fort Atkinson and Isaac L. Smith of Tiffany, who was one of the real pioneers having settled in the county as early as 1835. Come and assist in making this gathering one of pleasure and profit. Especially to all those interested in the development and growth of our town.

Out of courtesy to the ladies who serve the dinner it is requested that all intending to be present at dinner notify the committee in charge two days in advance of date.

MRS. J. G. CARR, Secretary.

Rice-Gifford.

Thursday evening, Dec. 5, '95 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Gifford, Milton, Wis., occurred the marriage of Mr. Ray Rice of Johnstown and Miss Minnie A. Gifford of Milton. As the clock struck eight the wedding march began to play and the couple were ushered into the room by the officiating clergyman. They took their places in the bay window which was beautifully decorated in white and green with a bank of flowers, directly back of them. At the conclusion of the ceremony about sixty relatives and friends came forward to offer congratulations amid smiles and much merriment. The bride was dressed in white with pearl trimmings and wore a beautiful bunch of white roses. The groom wore a conventional suit of black with bunch of white flowers. All were invited to the dining room where an elegant supper was served. There was music all through the evening which added much to the cheerfulness. The guests were all requested to leave their autograph in a guest's book before they left. The large number of valuable tokens of friendship showed in what high esteem the young couple were held. At 12:30 a. m. the happy couple left for Waukesha and Milwaukee. Many of the friends accompanied them to the depot and showed their good wishes by showering the Rices with rice. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will return in a few days and make Milton their home for the present. May joy and happiness follow the young couple. Guest.

Holiday Excursions.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y will sell excursion tickets to all points on its lines within a radius of 200 miles, on December 24, 25 and 31, 1895; and January 1, 1896, good for return until and including January 2, 1896, at a fare and a third for the round trip.

REMARKABLE TREE.

It Has Enormous Branches but No Trunk, and Is Kin to the Boabab.

What is probably the most remarkable tree on earth was lately discovered on the promontory of Kinsembo, south of the mouth of the Congo. It has not even the vestige of a trunk, but spreads its immense branches directly on the ground. Naturalists say that this curio from nature's workshop is a relative of the boabab, the well-known giant tree growing on the prairies in many portions of the dark continent, which has a trunk measuring sometimes nearly fifty feet in diameter, while the branches often extend seventy-five feet and more, their ends touching the ground, so that the tree forms a huge skeleton tent.

For a short time every year the boabab shows a scant display of meager leaves, but generally the tree is bare, except for the large, melon-shaped fruit. The shell of the fruit incloses a dry, white substance, which can readily be reduced to a powder, and in that form serves as a specific against fever. In some districts the negroes eat the leaves. The trunk of the common boabab is often hollow; such hollow trees are used as the burial places for the "sorcerers" of some tribes, that the earth may not be polluted by their remains. Adamson pretends to know that one of these trees, which he had seen himself, shows evidence of being 5,150 years old, while the untutored savages still look upon the boabab as a puzzle old and big enough for worship.

The Battle of the Giants.

The Battle of the Giants was another name given to the battle of Marignano in 1515, between the allied French and Venetians and the allied Italian and Swiss armies. The latter were defeated with great slaughter, over 12,000 of their troops being left on the field. The victors lost 4,000. The battle was given the name by Trivulzio, a soldier and historian, who was present.

WHEELS WILL RUN ON THE SNOW

Alderman Sutherland and James Root Both Try the Experiment

That cycling upon the snow is possible is the opinion of a number of Janesville riders. Alderman Sutherland, who is one of the Bower City's most enthusiastic wheelmen started out on his wheel Sunday morning and although the roads were covered with snow, easily made a circuit of the city and declares that the wheel ran as easy as anytime during the summer. James Root, also a member of the Arrow Cycling club, started out today on his wheel and made a trip about the city, and says the wheel seldom slipped and ran as easy as in the summer.

First Thimble Made 200 Years Ago.

A thimble was originally a thumb-bell, because it was worn on the thumb, as sailors still wear their thimbles. It is a Dutch invention, and in 1884 in Amsterdam the bi-centennial of the thimble was celebrated with a great deal of formality. This very valuable addition to my lady's workbasket was first made by a goldsmith named Nicholas van Benschoten, the ancestor of the American family of Van Benschotens. And it may further interest colonial dames to know that the first thimble made was presented in 1684 to Anna van Wedy, the second wife of Killian van Rensselaer, the purchaser of Rensselaerwyck and the first patroon. Mme. van Rensselaer's memory was duly honored in Holland on the occasion of the thimble bi-centennial. In presenting his useful gift Van Benschoten begged Mme. van Rensselaer "to accept this new covering for the protection of her diligent fingers as a token of his esteem." It was not until 1895, just 200 years ago, that the thimble was introduced into England by a Hollander named John Lofting, who opened a thimble manufactory at Islington.—Harper's Bazar.

MISSIONARIES IN CHINA.

Grave Mistakes Made by Inexperienced Men and Women.

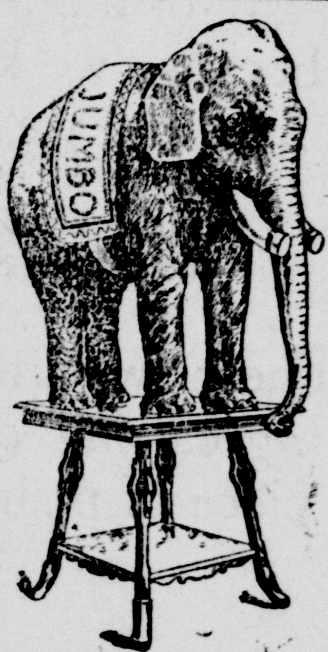

Nothing is more remarkable than the extraordinary and heedless zeal of the modern missionary in China, says the Philadelphia Times. Regardless of all dangers, the young aspirants for missionary work, heedless of former mishaps, make the long and tedious voyages into the interior far from any help. I have seen young married people, with a child clinging to the breast of its mother, start out from Shanghai for the north, not knowing one word of the Chinese language. The force of folly could no further go. Of the great importance of knowing the Chinese language before attempting to preach, and of the patience required in mastering the same, too much cannot possibly be said. In the "mandarin," which is the dialect used by all the officials in the eighteen provinces, there are to every sound four distinct tones. If the young missionary, after studying for a year or more the common every day phrases and characters, starts out an itinerant from the stations, and during a street sermon does not use the right tone or inflection of his voice with a certain sound, he will convey to his hearers an absolutely different meaning from that intended. The four tones in the "mandarin" are: First, an ascending tone, giving a high explosive sound, as when in anger; second, a rising inflection, as when making an inquiry; third, a curving, and fourth, a lowering inflection. The language, containing tens of thousands of words and characters, has only two or three hundred sounds, which necessitates the great tone difficulty. European children, born in China, hear and reproduce the tones naturally and unerringly, but the tongues and ears of the missionary must be trained by careful and persevering attention. Serious troubles have at times been traced to blunders made by slips of the tongue and neglect in using the proper tone. Ignorance in this matter may lead to speaking disparagingly of old customs or perhaps an unintentional condemnation of the sacred rites expounded by Confucius. Old and experienced missionaries assert that it is a great mistake, and very often the cause of grave consequences to allow inexperienced men and women to deal with the Chinese, whose passions lie in a dormant state until aroused, when at the slightest provocation they break forth with the fury of wild beasts.

The Gift of Making Friends.

Blessed is the man who has the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things, but above all the power of going out of one's self, and seeing and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another man.—Thomas Hughes.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1686—"The Great Conde" (Louis, prince of Conde) died; born 1620.

1805—William Lloyd Garrison born; died 1879.

1832—Andrew Jackson issued his proclamation against the nullifiers of South Carolina.

1850—Dr. Livingstone reached London and gave an account of his 16 years' sojourn in the heart of Africa. Dr. Livingstone went to Africa in 1840 under the auspices of the London Missionary society. He labored and traveled for 16 years, and upon his return received from the Geographical society a gold medal for his important discoveries and able report. He subsequently made two trips and died there in 1873.

1870—The new German empire proclaimed at Berlin. Dumas the elder died; born 1803.

1888—Rear Admiral William Edgar LeRoy, U. S. N., died; born 1817.

1893—Oliver Johnson, author and agitator, died in Brooklyn; born 1820.

1900—Benjamin Shaw, inventor, died at Lowell, Mass.; born 1832. Dr. Koch's consumption cure introduced into America at New York city.

DR. HALSEY AND CATHOLICS.

A sermon that Janesville needed was preached by Rev. Dr. Halsey Sunday night. It was needed not for its bearing on the Catholic church alone. There has been too much talk on all sides about heaven being reached by this or that theological route only.

Dr. Halsey is an ardent Methodist, a radical Protestant, but he sees much in Catholicism to admire, much he would have his own church emulate. He has sought the reasons for Catholicism's success, and finds some of them to be steadfastness of faith, a lofty purpose, loyal people and almost perfect organization. Power won by these influences he cannot but regard as legitimate, nor is he disposed to quarrel with the Catholic church for the way its power is used. He would be glad if Protestant churches asserted themselves in the same way.

Dr. Halsey's sermon was heard by Catholics as well as Protestants. No higher tribute can be paid than to say that it left hearers of all creeds with a stronger sense of the brotherhood of man.

WHERE TRADE HAS REVIVED.

Speaking of British foreign trade this year to September 30, the London Economist said:

There is, for instance, a notable drop from £26,661,000 to £22,978,000 in our imports from the United States, due mainly to the smaller quantities and lower prices of wheat and flour we received from thence.

Turning now to our exports the out-standing feature so far as foreign countries are concerned is an increase of close upon £8,000,000 in our shipments to the United States, which has been spread over most branches of our manufactures.

Thus, during the first nine months of the Gorman tariff, British imports from the United States decreased by £3,682,000 and exports to this country increased by £8,000,000, the net trade gain to that country being £11,683,000 for the period or at a rate of £73,000,000 a year. This includes profits made through gold transactions resulting from our increasing debt. The Wilson barquet should be supplemented by a testimonial, a gold plate suitably inscribed with the services rendered to British trade by the un-American professor.

THEY ARE HOLDING BACK

In the corn district the same as here in the barley and oats country farmers are holding a large portion of the crop for higher prices. It was expected that the market would be flooded as soon as the crops were gathered but so far the shipments have been comparatively small, and the product is being cribbed in great quantities by those who are not willing to let it go until they realize a fair profit from it.

According to a published paragraph New York has one saloon to every 234 inhabitants; Boston one to every 500; Philadelphia one to every 841; Chicago one to every 242; Milwaukee one to every 166 inhabitants. Janesville holds her own pretty well up to the average; in this city there is one saloon to every 282 inhabitants. Green Bay claims one saloon to every 201 inhabitants and Oshkosh one to every 317.

Chicago will probably get the republican convention and ought to get it. The convention is not a thing to be hawked about like a wagon of oranges. It should be held where delegates and visitors can be cared for properly whether the national committee's debts are paid or not.

EMINENT TESTIMONY

Regarding the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Dr. Hartzman, who has made many tests of the new dyspepsia cure, is very enthusiastic in his praise of this excellent preparation. It is not a secret patent medicine, but is composed of pure pepsin, bismuth, fruit salts and vegetable essences, made into pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges and sold by druggists at 50 Cents per package, under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dr. Hartzman states that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and weak stomachs, because they possess the peculiar power of digesting whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach. They do not act on the bowels like cathartics, but act entirely on the food, digesting it thoroughly and quickly, giving the stomach a chance to rest and recover its natural strength, which it invariably will do after a course of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. If your druggist hasn't them in stock ask him to order a small quantity from his wholesaler.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK OF IT? Of course, you don't sleep in them, but the greater part of your time is put in with Shoes as companions. Taking this into consideration, it's well to go to the place where you get

A Perfect Fit,
In Perfect shoes.

We have the reputation of knowing how to fit shoes to the feet, this does not mean we simply put the shoes on the feet, but see to it that the Shoe and foot look well when put together. This reputation is not in our own mind wholly; people have come to us many times with this compliment for our Shoe knowledge. It's easier to fit shoes that are made and put up carefully, of course, than others. These are the kind we carry: Our

Box Calf,
Oxide Calf,
Enamel, Cordovan,

And as many others, we do not mention here for men are easy and pretty fitters. Our heavy

Calf Dongola,

special for ladies and our

Twenty Tons to Bower City People
—The Gossip Gathered Up About the Town.

THE coal trade with Milton merchants is growing each day. Solicitations from the college town were in the city today looking up orders and it is said that they fared very well. One of them is said to have gone back home with commission to send twenty tons of the black diamonds to the Bower City.

S. L. KEMMERER and E. W. Kemmerer, his son, of Independence, Iowa, are in the city preparing to open an exclusive dry goods stock. Mr. Kemmerer has taken a four years' lease of the store at No. 13 North Main street, and has secured the services of T. Van Valen, who is an old time dry goods man.

SOME men won't wear rings because they never have seen just the kind or style of ring that pleased them. A. F. Hall & Co., the reliable jewelers, have a lot of extremely stylish rings, different entirely from the ordinary and are just the sort that would please a gentleman with fastidious tastes.

TOUCHING a man's heart is delicate business, but not risky when you know him. We can help young men carry slippers that proud men delight to enjoy. You reach a man's comfort you have touched his heart. Our slippers from 50 cents up will do the work. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

WE have never been so well prepared to take care of Christmas slippers as we are this year. An abundance of styles, real foot resters; such as any lady or gentleman would appreciate. We want to show them to you. Becker & Woodruff.

THOSE solid silver mounted canes and umbrellas are going very fast at Rosenfeld's. Think of it! A genuine weasel cane for 50 cents; it makes a more suitable present than some article that costs more money. It can always be remembered.

WE wish to give Edward Stralman, the popular clerk at Rosenfeld's clothing store, credit for dressing one of the prettiest windows in the city in a remarkably short space of time. Only four hours were required in its arrangement.

THINK of buying the very best undressed kid strap slippers made at $1 a pair. We have them in several colors. Just right for dancing slippers. All retail regularly for $2.50. Becker & Woodruff.

OUR line of 50 cent neckwear is the most complete in the city. It embraces all the new shapes in necks, four in hands, bows and De Joinvilles. Why pay more than 50 cents for the same grade elsewhere. F. H. Baack.

THE pleasure of a good opera glass is only equalled by the discomfort of using a poor one. Those sold by A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers," are the best made. If you want one for Christmas by it there.

IF it should happen that you do not find just what you wanted at A. F. Hall & Co.'s, the reliable jewelers, the chances are that you will find something that will suit you just as well as what you expected to buy.

ATTORNEY S. M. SMITH has been elected superintendent of the Presbyterian church Sunday School to succeed the late Dr. Thorwaldsen Judd. I. F. Wortendyke, superintendent of the gas company, was made assistant.

JANESVILLE Chapter O. E. S. will hold a regular meeting at Masonic hall, Wednesday evening, December 11, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as matters of importance will come before the Chapter.

ART EXHIBIT FINER
THAN THE FIRSTSTANDARD, ON THE WHOLE IS HIGHER.

Benson, Browne, Steele, Peraud and Robbins are the Stars of the Exhibition as far as Paintings Are Concerned—Sculptor Taft and His Gifted Pupils.

This year's Art League exhibit is smaller than last year's and not as rich in striking pieces, but the standard of the whole is higher. The display is good—uniformly good—and many features are brilliant.

The first day and evening brought many visitors to the League rooms, at the corner of Milwaukee and River streets and today there were more. There could be no disappointment over the extent of the display, for the eye was caught instantly by Frank W. Benson's Spanish girl, and the half dozen other good things near the door. Benson, whose "Girl in the Firelight" attracted so much attention last year, has gone a long way from the conventional for his this year's model. Spanish he calls her but she would be very much at home in America and a very pretty American she would be.

Charles Francis Browne, Frank C. Peraud, Theodore C. Steele and Richard Smith Robbins by their landscape give the exhibition two thirds of its value.

Browne has nine—so simple in arrangement and subdued in tone that the rare talent of the painter is almost overlooked. "Bass Lake, Indiana" and "On the Oke" are especially good, while "Sand Dunes, Scotland," a more ambitious work shows skillful use of the dead brown of sand hills against the gem like blue of the bay.

Peraud's work is more brilliant in color than Browne's but less truthful. There is a striking contrast between his two winter scenes—one glowing in red, the other in the cold light of evening.

Robbins studied in Paris under Constant, Lafavore and Doucet, and both his pieces show the influence of French teachings in their mysterious, hazy breadth.

A Painter of Sunlight.

Of Steele something already has been said. Neither his "Summer Morning" or his "April Morning" are seen at their best in the evening. His sunlight is too radiant to seem faithful under the yellow of artificial light. He studied in Munich but there is nothing of the old Munich classicism about his work—it is rather of the Munich "secession," the body of young artists who went out rebellious from the old society a few years ago.

Very different is the work of Richard Lorenz director of the Milwaukee Art School who holds to the high colors and strong contrasts of the earlier Munich school.

Frank Beaugh paints scenes from Texas—a life he knows well. He is hampered by the limitations of his medium—pastel—but gives an excellent idea in "The Round-Up" of the boundless sweep of a western plain. Mrs. A. Van Cleeve Dodge's three little landscapes have skies that are full of air and light, and Walter M. Dewey has been successful in catching the effect of a mass of foliage over still water. C. J. Anderson succeeds more than passably well in finding poetry in a Chicago down town street at evening.

Beautiful Bits of Sculpture.

As to sculpture the exhibit is far ahead of last year's. Lorado Taft has three pieces, all of which will attract attention—a life-size sketch in colored plaster of Julia Marlowe Tabor, a bronze bust of "Joan of Arc," and a portrait medallion. His Joan of Arc is a simple minded country girl unwillingly stepping to the post assigned her by the "voices." A strong face outlined by a strong hand is the medallion, while Mrs. Tabor's bust lacks the winning charm of her smile, and so seems cold.

Julia M. Bracken shows one of the daintiest bits to be seen in many days' journey—a sensitive, girlish face in very low relief;—and Bessie Potter's four statuettes catch the eye instantly by their elasticity of pose. It is hard to understand how bits of cold plaster can be filled with vivacity and spirit as are the three girls and the independent manly school boy. "Kathleen," the bust of a winsome baby, has a charm akin to Miss Bracken's "Daisy."

Herman A. MacNeil, one of the Chicago Art Institute instructors, contributes a plaster relief, "Mo-li," one of the studies he made while among the Zuni Indians last summer.

The pictures are very well hung this year and the light is good, day and evening. The exhibition lasts all this week.

Initial Handkerchiefs.

Probably no article is quite as popular for Christmas gifts as handkerchiefs. We have a dozen complete lines of initial handkerchiefs, every letter in every line. They are very handsome and very cheap. Read our large ad and prices today. Bort, Bailey & Co.

HOUSE WAS ROBBED
WHILE LLOYD SLEPTEMERALD GROVE BACHELOR SUSPECTS A MAN HE HELPED

Gave a Tramp Lodging and Found His Cash Gone Today—Runaway Baraboo Boy Is Locked Up Here and Will Be Taken Home—Robe Stolen.

ldbr

A tramp evidently returned "Bachelor" Lloyd's kindness by robbing him last night. Mr. Lloyd lives alone near Emerald Grove, and was in the city this morning and informed the police that a tramp knocked at his door at 10 o'clock last evening, wanting a place to sleep. Mr. Lloyd directed him to the barn where he went, and that was the last he saw of him. This morning, on arising, Mr. Lloyd found that during the night the house had been ransacked and fourteen dollars in money gone. He described the man, and they may get him yet.

The fifteen year old son of Engineer and Mrs. Welch, of Baraboo, is now lodged behind the bars at the Rock county jail, for running away from home. The young man left home Sunday night, and this morning the sheriff received a telegram stating that the lad was headed this way. The sheriff was at the depot early this morning and from the description easily "spotted" the boy. He owned up and will be taken back home by relative.

Some one stole a robe from Rev. Mr. Hammond's sleigh but Chief Ache son recovered it.

BOB, A BLIND DOG, GONE.

Just a Tramp Police Cur, but Wouldn't Chum with a Tramp Cat.

Bob, the blind dog that has been attached to the police station at West Brighton, S. I., for the last four years, has disappeared, and now there is gloom in the police circles of West Brighton. An interloper cat is responsible for his absence.

Four years ago he turned up in the police station, half starved, and a policeman named Bob fed him and gave him a name, and under this treatment the dog came out wonderfully. He was of a very mixed breed, common cur blood predominating, and his coat was a mixture of white and yellow, arranged after an indescribable ornery pattern. This was when the police station was in the old haunted house and when at 2 o'clock the spook made its irregular appearance, Bob was the worst frightened inmate of the station. He always, after his first ghostly experience, ran out into the street, and it took great coaxing to induce him to return. He had a habit of assisting the sergeant to turn out the squad of police every morning at 6 o'clock. He stood at the head of the column, and when the command "March!" was given he gave two sharp yelps. Then he went across the street and visited the butcher, who happened to be the father of policeman Bob, and there he stayed until time to turn out another squad of police, at 6 o'clock in the evening. Then, until next morning, he was the guardian of the station. He became blind three years ago by a cataract forming over his eyes. He had already become very familiar with the station and its surroundings, however, and his blindness did not embarrass him to any extent. When a big gray cat took a fancy to the police station a few days ago, Bob showed his displeasure to everyone except the cat. He was evidently afraid of pussy. He spent all of his time with the butcher for two days, and then disappeared altogether. All the police have orders to look for him.

An Old-Time New Woman.

Women who pride themselves to-day upon their all around ability and knowledge of everything must sit in humility before the accomplishments recorded of Mrs. Hannah Woolley, who, a governess in the reign of Charles II., was moved to write "A Guide to the Female Sex." In the volume her own education was thus summarized: "The things I pretend greatest skill in are all works wrought with a needle, all transparent works, shell work, moss work, also cutting of prints, and adorning rooms or cabinets or stands with wyes, all manner of pretty toys, rocks made with shells or in sweets, frames for looking glasses, feathers of crevel for the corners of beds, preserving all kinds of sweetmeats, wet or dry, setting out of banquets, making of salves, ointments, waters, cordials, healing any wounds not desperately dangerous, knowledge in discerning the symptoms of most diseases, and giving such remedies as are fit; all manner of cookery, writing and arithmetic, washing black or white sarisens, making sweet powders for the hair or to lay among linen." Nor was this all. Mrs. Woolley knew French and Italian and Latin, which she counseled her sex to study, "since it may hence appear, ladies, that you have no Pygmean souls, but as capable of gigantic growth as your male opponents."

Beauties of the Material Life.

All the hymns, all the prayers, all the scripture reading are as nothing unless you make their beauty come into your daily life, writes Ruth Ashmore. Take some of the care off the shoulders of the busy mother; make life seem more pleasant by your gracious thought of that father who toils all day long. Make it easier for a sister to dislike the wrong and do the right; show a brother the rosy side of the cross and so make it lighter for him to carry. And do all this, not with loud protestations, but quietly and gently, letting God's name be whispered in your heart, and being only the sister and daughter without forcing the knowledge that you are the Christian. Then, very soon some one will realize that your beautiful life is lived for Christ's sake, and then you will represent Him as all women should, not by speaking from the pulpit, not by giving commands, but by living every day the life that He would wish should be yours.

DIGESTION AND WORK

HOW SICK PEOPLE MAY SAVE THEIR ENERGY.

It is as hard work for some people to digest their dinner as it is for a normal man to walk ten miles.

"After dinner rest awhile." This is an old saying. It means that if after eating a heavy meal you try to do hard work you will exhaust all your energy. There will be none left for your stomach. Your stomach needs energy to work just as your leg or arm does.

Sick people want energy. They seldom have enough for their stomach. Their digestion is out of order and they want to know the reason. It is simple enough as we have told it.

What they ought to do is to save their stomach from hard work until it is capable of doing it. Just as they rest their tired backs by lying down.

This they can do by using artificially digested food. Shaker Digestive Cordial contains such food; not only this, but it is capable of digesting other foods in the stomach.

Shaker Digestive Cordial affords nourishment and creates new energy as soon as it is swallowed. Ordinary food first has to be digested. Shaker Digestive Cordial while creating new energy does not expend any. It gives the stomach no work to do. It will make thin people fat. Getting thin is a sign of sickness. A person may be born thin, and naturally remain so. Such a one is not necessarily sick. All Druggists keep it and a 10 cent sample bottle may first be tried.

Bradbury Pianos—Special Christmas Offer

We intend that 1895 shall be a red letter year in our fifty years of business. We want you to help us out and to increase our sales. We put your names and the names of your friends who would buy the best and sweetest toned piano made if they could buy it on extra favorable terms. Your Christmas will be happier if you have a new Bradbury in the parlor. Our Christmas will be happy if our immense factories, stores and warehouses in Chicago, New York and other cities are emptied to meet your demands.

We want you to have the same sort of Bradbury piano that Mrs. Cleveland plays on in the White House, and that Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Harrison used, and that Mrs. Grant used also. Don't be afraid that the price is too high for you.

There is good news for you in our special 1895 Christmas offer. We don't expect the prices we got forty years or twenty years or ten years ago. But the Bradbury is better than ever in tone and quality and in every way. Our guarantee with over one million dollars capital behind every piano we make and sell.

Write today, for Christmas is coming fast. Address F. G. SMITH, Sole Manufacturer, 225-267 Wabash Ave. Chicago

HE IS A CIRCUS.

Yellow Dog That Crows Like a Rooster and Also Imitates Several Animals.

A narrator gives an account in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of a trip through Missouri, in the course of which he says: "I was the guest of the Rev. Frank M. Downing, who lives in the neighborhood of a small settlement called County Line. His family consists of himself and wife and a small yellow dog, which I noticed received an unusual amount of care and attention. As there was nothing particularly attractive about the dog, which was only a mongrel cur, I rather wondered at their manifest affection, and one day inquired the reason of it. Mr. Downing, for answer, called 'Bench,' and placing him in a chair, commanded him to 'crow.' My astonishment was unbounded when the dog gave a perfect imitation of a Shanghai rooster, and without further command followed it with the neigh of a horse, lowing of cows, grunts and squeals of pigs, meowing of cats, and various noises incident to farm life. He could give all the yelps of a pack of hounds in pursuit of a fox, and in so realistic a manner that you could scarcely help believing that a hunt was in progress.

"Mr. Downing said nobody had taught the animal, and his peculiar imitative powers were discovered by accident. The summer previous, when Bench was a mere puppy, the Rev. John Malcolm, the preacher for their circuit, was ill at Downing's house and was made extremely nervous at night by a rooster crowing at all hours beneath his window. The people who were attending could not discover the rooster, but one morning Mrs. Downing, in passing the window, was startled by seeing the puppy throw back his head and crow. He quickly learned to crow at command, and each day picked up some new sound. Last November a neighbor of Mr. Downing's carried Bench to Nashville while the circus was there, and the manager offered a handsome price for him, saying that he was convinced Bench could be taught to talk, but Mr. Downing refused to give him up. In appearance Bench is not prepossessing, his color being a dirty yellow, his hair coarse and wiry, his legs short, and his body rather unwieldy. In his eyes, however, there gleams an intelligence almost human."

5 AND 10 CENT STORE, ON THE BRIDGE.

It has been told of Abraham Lincoln, that he once said "God must like common people since there are so many of us." We are selling a large assortment of 5c, 10c, 25c, 50c and $1.00 goods, suitable to the season. We find that it pays to cater to the small things in trade and thereby reach the great quantity and masses of people. Our goods are nicely laid out and you can easily examine them.
